Kickers Dancing After 2-1 Victory Over Greenville

Kickers win over Greenville

Richmond, VA, 30.08.2020, 05:11 Time

USPA NEWS - Richmond Kickers celebrated dancing style after their 2-1 victory over Greenville Triumph SC and hoisted the Bon Secure trophy high above their heads. The Kickers closed out the month of August undefeated, as well.

“I can barely hear you guys (media) as the guys are dancing in the hallways,“ exclaimed Coach Darren Sawatzky. Winning their fourth match in a row, the Kickers remain in second place in the standings table with a 4-1-1 record, but improved to 13 points.
Kickers started the scoring early when Matthew Bolduc took the ball down the right side of the pitch, perfectly centering it for Emiliano Terzaghi to finish it in the back of the net during the 15th minute. “Matt (Bolduc) did all the work,“ said Terzaghi, who scored his fifth goal of the season versus Greenville.
Though it was centerback´s Ivan Magaihaes´ save that was the highlight. Guarding the line from a for sure empty net goal, Ivan cleared out a ball destined to find its way to the back of the net. “Ivan is an instinctual centerback,“ Sawatzky added.
Richmond Kickers next match is Saturday, September 5th as they travel to Arizona to battle FC Tucson.
Those wondering, to quote Terzaghi, the best dancer on the team is Stanley Alves.
